Metals X Limited Acquires 19.99% Stake in Jabiru Metals Limited

Metals X Limited advises that it has today acquired a 19.99% stake (110,468,574 million shares) in Jabiru Metals Limited ("JML").

Metals X believes JML is a quality emerging base metal miner with excellent longer term growth prospects. The JML assets fit well with the diversified portfolio of assets and investments already held by Metals X. Metals X will seek board representation in JML commensurate with its position as the major shareholder.
