RENISON UNDAMAGED BY RECENT BUSH FIRES

Metals X Limited (the Company) wishes to advise that its 50%-owned Renison Tin Operations (Renison) are undamaged from recent bush fires in the region that have been reported in the press.

Operations at Renison were suspended and non-essential personnel evacuated from site for approximately 24 hours between Friday 25 January and Saturday 26 January 2019 while the fire danger was severe. The fire alert level has since been downgraded to 'Advice' status. Renison recommenced operations on Saturday 26 January.
